

ArtsVenture

What's ArtsVenture?

A day-long bus trip which gives students, faculty, staff and others the opportunity to discover and explore art that is "off the beaten track."

Where's ArtsVenture going?

ArtsVenture is going to the beautiful Hudson River Valley in New York (approximately 2 ½ - 3 hrs. from Bethlehem) to visit DIA:Beacon www.diaart.org one of the world's preeminent contemporary art institutions featuring famous minimalist works from the 1960's to present.

When is ArtsVenture?

ArtsVenture is Saturday, October 14, departing Lehigh University 8 AM from the corner of Brodhead St. and West Packer Ave. Arrival back at Lehigh is approximately 5 PM.

Who's the special speaker on ArtsVenture?

Lucy Gans, professor of art, Art and Architecture Department will be giving an overview of contemporary art as related to the works at DIA:Beacon en route. In addition, guided docent tours of the site are available.

How do I register for ArtsVenture?

Fill out a registration form (available at www.lehigh.edu/artslehigh) by Friday, October 6 and mail it along with a check for $30 (per person-does not include lunch) made out to ArtsLehigh.

Mail registration and check to:
ArtsLehigh
Attn: Susan
230 W. Packer Ave.
Bethlehem, PA 18015

For more information call 610.758.5775 or email sus205@lehigh.edu or visit our website at www.lehigh.edu/artslehigh

ArtsLehigh – Linking art, learning and life.

